Macomb County

- A Brief History -

General Alexander Macomb, a highly decorated veteran of the war of 1812 and a respected General of the U.S. Army, left a legacy of strength with which to name Macomb County.

Though today's land boundaries were not set until the mid-1820's, Macomb County's first settlement was founded in 1871, by a religious sect of people called the Moravians, along the shore of the Huron River. Predominately wilderness, the county's most lucrative industry was lumber.

A failed attempt at education was made in 1818 with only three students enrolled in the first school, located in the courthouse of downtown Mount Clemens. In 1920, education was reintroduced but it would be 15 years before a structure was built for educational purposes.

In the 1870's, mineral baths and lush hotels brought international fame to Mount Clemens for its spa vacations, due to the discovery of a stream which still runs beneath the city. Though many believed that the water had healing powers, the interest in the spas died out in the early 20th century.

Between 1920 and 1930, Macomb County doubled in population. Southern Macomb County was industrialized primarily due to automobile manufacturing which escalated greatly at the end of World War II. A lucrative car industry, combined with federal programs such as the Federal Housing Act and the Veterans Administration Housing Act, encouraged housing, and population grew by 70 percent from 1940 to 1950. As a result of this growth, public facilities were enlarged, schools were built and streets were paved.

While agriculture still dominates land usage of the 300,000, plus, acres of Macomb County, residential development is rapidly growing and present land usage of Macomb County is as follows.

Vacant	92,260 acres	29.9%
Agricultural	76,490 acres	24.8%
Residential	66,450 acres	21.5%
Public/Semi Public	40,030 acres	13%
Industrial	15,200 acres	4.9%
Recreational	7,310 acres	3.5%
Commercial	7,310 acres	2.4%

The Star-Spangled Banner National Anthem

*O say can you see,
by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed
at the twilight's last gleaming.
Whose broad stripes and bright stars
through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watched,
were so gallantly streaming
And the rockets' red glare,
the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
that our flag was still there,
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free
and the home of the brave.*
